Subject Rn-222 from ponds

Hi, Jack. Here is some information regarding radon-222 emissions from storage ponds containing naturally occurring radionuclides from the uranium decay chain (e.g., radium-226). Please keep all of the information below internal to EPA as it is part of a rulemaking where the draft proposed rule has not yet been released to the public for comment. The language below is referring to evaporation/holding ponds at uranium recovery facilities.
